This frame has been handmade in India by Noah's Ark.
Handmade using recycled bike chains which have been discarded from repair shops because they are broken or have incorrect sized links.
By buying this frame you are helping to support sustainable industries and ensure the livelihood of Noah's Ark workers.

Handcrafted by Noah's Ark in Moradabad, India.
These innovative recycled bike chain products are handmade using recycled bike parts, including chains which have been discarded from repair shops because they are broken or have incorrectly sized links.

Noah's Ark was established in 1986 in response to the exploitation of poor artisans in Moradabad. It now has more than 500 artisans in the town, working on a Fair Trade basis.
