Organic GOODNESS reed stick diffuser

Made from organic sugarcane alcohol and natural essential oils, these diffusers create a soft and lingering fragrance, which refreshes and rejuvenates your room.

The Organic Goodness range contains no palm oil, parabens, preservatives, artificial fragrances, detergents, colourants, or petrochemicals.

85-90% of 'Song of India's' producers are under privileged workers, known as SC (scheduled class), ST (scheduled tribes) or OBC (other backward classes), from Uttar Pradesh. Wages at Sol are well above the minimum wage and all workers receive a 10% increase every year.

Sol has built a 100% solar powered factory therefore, is now a net producer, rather than a consumer, of electricity.

Coconut incense holders & ashcatchers

We're doing what we can at Shared Earth to tackle climate change, and one of the best things we can do is source products which are made from sustainable materials. Coconut shell from Bali is ideal.

The trees grow in abundance all over the island; it's a waste product which is gathered locally right next to where the producers carve it into these colourful designs; and of course energy use is minimal. Combine that with carbon-neutral shipping to the UK and you have a perfect eco product.
