Recycled Paper Gift Bags

More products from Jugaad, the commercial arm of Karm Marg. Sales of these gift bags helps to provide a home for street children. The older children started making bags from newspapers and scraps of textiles and with the help of a few donations and some street stalls, by 2000 enough was raised to buy an acre of farmland near Delhi.

The children helped to design and build the home and learn vocational skills such as carpentry, stitching, silk-screen printing and management - giving them a sense of responsibility and confidence which is an excellent start to their adult lives.
