Soft toys

You wouldn't believe they're made from recycled and shredded plastic bottles, they're so soft!

We introduced these cuddly animals just before Christmas and they took off straight away!

It may come as a surprise but some of the top sellers in this range are the ray (KL51), the hammerhead shark (KL49) and the octopus (KL45). For every squirrel, bear or rabbit, we've sold 5 rays, 4 sharks and 3 octopuses! People clearly want to be frightened, try them and see.

Crochet Tape Measures

Craft Link is a not-for-profit Fair Trade organisation in Hanoi, Vietnam which helps artisans to revive their culture and improve their livelihoods through craft production and marketing. These tape measures are made by the Do Son Crochet Group in Hai Phong, formed to help refugee women in 1988. We love this modern take on traditional crochet skills! A fun way of measuring – transform what may seem boring tasks into tasks where you can have a laugh at the same time! Especially good at this time of year as a quirky Christmas gift which everyone will love.

Keyrings

Craft Link buys from over 60 artisan groups, nearly half of whom are from ethnic minorities, many of them living in traditional villages. These keyrings show some of the styles of dress worn by different communities across Vietnam. They are made by the Ma people, former nomads, who have settled in Buon Go, a small village of about 200 people, many living in traditional longhouses made from bamboo and thatch. The project's partners include WWF, CARE and Craft Link, part of the aim being to alleviate pressure on forest resources. They're made with traditional handlooms.

Worry dolls are made by hand in Guatemala. You can buy some of them individually but we recommend the point of sale boxes which are excellent for attracting attention and increasing sales.

Our worry doll supplier is based in Antigua, an old city full of cobbled streets. Our suppliers have a carpentry workshop to make the display boxes you see in these pages.
